

Candidates for Nominations & Elections Committee

Name	Country	Degree	Years of Experience	Statement
Qamar Iqbal	Pakistan	MS, MEd	12	I want to nominate myself as a Nominations & Elections Committee, I have a master's degree in political science if selected I can play an effective role for IHLA.
Sabrina Kurtz-Rossi	United States of America	Med	20	Health Literacy is a tool through which a considerable disease and financial burden may be reduced, and quality of life may be significantly improved. I want to contribute to this great cause through this position and platform.
Robert A. Logan	United States of America	PhD	10	IHLA's elections are a key to implementing its constitution and bylaws, which I co-authored. I eagerly served on IHLA's appointed elections committee from 2018-2021 because the prudent management of elections are foundational to IHLA's transition from a start-up to a comprehensive, well-managed academic professional organization. I hope to continue my service on the newly elected Standing Committee on Elections and Nominations.
Fred Voon	Canada	MD, CCFP-EM	20	To promote health literacy and counter misinformation/disinformation.
Sivan Y.S.	India	PhD	4	To work closely with leaders in the field; become familiar with the procedures.
